

"Creating art helps me realize what to do to get what I want. Each line I draw and colors too have meaning that makes this game true."

"The more I think and the more I do, it gives my wishes a better chance to come through."

"Start with small wishes you can do, and have fun reaching for the greater dream for they too can come to you."

"Splaterday! I proclaim this moment of time when we practice making ourselves better one wish at a time. Let's form a club based in art so our friends can learn to draw from the heart."
