

Press Release

For immediate release

Indian Nations Council of the Boy Scouts of America announces the formation of a new Learning for Life Explorer Post opening in Tulsa in 2010.

Tulsa, OK, January 6, 2010: Indian Nations Council of BSA is joining with Art Smart Club of the United States to form a new Explorer Post open to any and all youth, boys and girls, in the Tulsa Metro area, which have completed the 8th grade and are between the ages of 14 and 21. The Explorer Post will focus on stimulating and teaching creative arts to youth interested in learning about ways to:

- ✓ Service the community through their creative art
- ✓ Compete locally and nationally with their creations
- ✓ Market and sell their projects through local events, exhibitions and the internet
- ✓ Interact with other youth in a fun and safe environment

The organizational meeting of the new Art Smart Club Post will be held; January 16, 2009 at 2:00 P.M. at the Art Smart Club located 7976 E 41st St. in Tulsa. (Inside the Tulsa Stained Glass/Art Play Center)

Parents and Youth are encouraged to come and check out the opportunities available through membership in the Explorer Post. Representatives of BSA's Learning for Life and The Art Smart Club will be on hand to answer all your questions. New members signing up on Saturday will receive a Free Club T-shirt. Memberships are available on a first come basis and space will be limited.

Additional information or to reserve a membership please contact Kathryn Murray at 918-392-1234 or kmurray@okscouts.org or Richard Bohm at The Art Smart Club at 918-665-2646 or info@artsmartclub.com.

Learning for Life Explorer Post general information: <http://www.learningforlife.org/exploring>
The Art Smart Club information: <http://www.artsmartclub.com>